Deflecto donates over 72 pallets of Office Supplies to local non-profit organization, Teachers' Treasures

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA—Deflecto LLC, manufacturer of desk organizers, floor protection and sign and literature display products has recently donated over 72 pallets of office supplies to a local non-profit organization, Teachers' Treasures. The organization helps at-risk children get the materials they need to succeed. The program supports more than 250 local schools with over 100,000 eligible students. Deflecto President, Paul Thompson commented, "Deflecto strives to make a difference in our community. Donating products to Teachers' Treasures is one way to make a positive impact. We value education and want to help teachers and students succeed."

A few of the items donated were rotating literature holders, sign holders, organizational bins and desk accessories. Barb Sweeney with Teachers Treasures stated, "The items we have been able to get out are already flying off the shelves. We are even going to use some of the 'desk sets' as part of our "wheel of fun". Teachers get to spin and win special items. Thanks so much Deflecto!"

About Teachers' Treasures

Teachers Treasures operates a retail-like free supply store for teachers, open year-round, with more than 300 items a teacher can use to help capture a child's interest, creativity and commitment to learning.

Teachers from any school (public, private, charter or parochial) in Marion County and the immediately surrounding school districts with 40% or more of the student population on the free or reduced lunch program are eligible.
